

CORRESPONDENCE

SCAPPOOSE

Dan Freeman is improving slowly. Watts Price has been transferred to a radio school.

The Boys' Club met in the lecture room Tuesday evening.

D. W. Price was a business visitor in Portland on Tuesday.

Grandma Beaver is in St. Helens for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Gochnor entertained the Ladies' Aid at her home last Thursday.

Mrs. Will Holland, of Warren, was visiting friends in Scappoose last week.

Mrs. Shell, of Portland, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George Grant.

Mr. French, violinist, living near Lapham mill, is compelled to seek a change of climate.

Mrs. Elias Lambertson and children spent Sunday in St. Helens as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nagle.

Vale Jovam was taken to the hospital on Monday by Mrs. Uhlman. He was suffering with a broken leg.

Miss Maud Watts has returned from a two weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Eskeridge, of Sheridan.

Toney Marek has purchased the house recently occupied by Mrs. Stanton and moved his family there on Saturday.

Grandma Watts is at home again after spending some time in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. N. Perry.

Miss Jennie Kemp, of Portland, spoke to the children and their parents at school on food conservation Wednesday.

Choir rehearsal was held at the home of R. F. Niblock Thursday evening. After rehearsal a social hour was enjoyed.

Mrs. Whitney, of Portland, was in town Sunday visiting her mother, Mrs. Cooper, who is convalescing from a spell of the grip.

Miss Gillingham came from Portland Saturday morning to instruct the chairmen of different committees in the Red Cross work.

John Richardson underwent an operation last week. The operation was due to his fall from the Linnton bus. He is improving now.

Mrs. Crowley is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mann, in Linnton, for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Mann is taking the rest cure in a hospital.

Letters from Herman and Fred from "somewhere in France," say they are having fine weather and everything is going right with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hubbard and family, of Index, Wash., motored from Portland last Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Bessemer.

Miss Brakel, of Portland, the violin teacher, will not be able to come down any more, on account of so many pupils nearer home.

While passing through the village on horseback last week, Ed. Wist turned his horse suddenly and the horse slipped and fell on him, spraining one of his ankles.

Mary Metcalf was a surprised girl when she walked home from school Monday evening and found a piano there. Needless to say Mary is very happy, and we are glad with her.

R. F. Niblock took Mrs. Grant Watts and her Sunday school class of boys for an automobile ride Sunday afternoon. The boys decided they had a good time.

There is a change in the time of services at the Congregational church. Sunday school, 10 a. m.; morning worship, 11:15 o'clock; evening service, 7:30.

Mr. Strauser, our former barber, and Mrs. Strauser were in Scappoose Sunday. They have returned from central Oregon. Mr. Strauser has a barber shop in Portland, on the east side.

It is with much regret we see Mr. and Mrs. Moore leaving us. Mr. Moore has enlisted, while Mrs. Moore with her son, has gone to Portland to make an indefinite stay with her mother.

While on a business trip to Portland J. E. Miller met with an accident. His car skidded and bumped into a curb, breaking a wheel. It cost him $30 before he could make it back home.

Loren Johnson took a crowd of young folks to the skating rink Tuesday evening, among them Rhoda West, Lillian McArthur, Mary Metcalf, Elliot McArthur, Victor Watts, Lyle Jobin, Gladys Perry. R. F. Niblock chaperoned the crowd.

Crist Robinsky, while hauling a load of lumber from the mill down to the dock, was unfortunate in having the chain break, upsetting the lumber and throwing him off with the load. He was severely injured and is at present in the hospital.

The Red Cross is having such large attendance at meetings it has been decided to meet twice a week. Miss Maud Watts, chairman, will have charge Tuesday afternoons from 2 to 5 o'clock. The society will be grateful for any old pieces of goods that will not fade—ginghams, etc. There is such a demand for ambulance pillows and other things they decided not to stick chiefly to the white goods, as at first.

WARREN

Carl Johnson expects to leave soon for Nebraska, where he has taken up a homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Benduro have moved back to their ranch, after spending a year at the "Little Mill."

A meeting of the boys of the Minstrel club will be called so as to complete arrangements for the minstrel show.

Mrs. Kemp, president of the W. C. T. U., spoke in Warren Wednesday afternoon. A good musical program was rendered.

Arthur Lund went to Portland Saturday and did not return Saturday night. Some say that Arthur has a magnet in Portland; others that he took the magnet with him.

Fred Boesel sold ten of his choice dairy cows to Mr. Whidmer, of St. Johns. The cows are to be delivered next Thursday. Mr. Boesel intends to turn his attention gradually to his stock and breed high grade thoroughbreds.

The Thrift Stamp campaign was launched with vigor and enthusiasm last Wednesday, when Professor Russell brought the matter before the general assembly. Several pupils have entered a stamp selling contest and applications are coming in fast.

The eighth grade took a tryout in examination on the December questions. Eighty per cent of the class received necessary grades for passing. We believe there is no question about our deserving the grades, for we all know that Mr. Russell makes a specialty of close grading.

Born, 1918, to the Warren public school, new interest in things musical. Encourage and feed this husky infant by contributing generously to a benefit ticket for a concert to be held the first or second, ult. The exact date will be decided upon at the next student body meeting, next Friday.

W. J. Fullerton left Wednesday for Portland, where he intends to go through an operation on his eyes. Everyone is indeed delighted to know that his trials, caused by almost loss of eyesight, will almost be over, and we will certainly be pleased to receive the services of Mr. Fullerton when he can once more recognize all his friends.

The Woodmen of the World will hold an interesting meeting Saturday night, February 2, at Erickson's hall, for all those interested in life insurance. A speaker will be present from Portland who thoroughly understands the insurance business, and everybody interested will be cordially invited to attend.

A. H. Terbell arrived home from Missouri last Thursday, where he purchased a thoroughbred Shorthorn bull. By his report we understand he still likes Warren the best, for his anxiousness leaked out when he took the first mail train back. He said that the temperature was 30 degrees below zero, which made him put on his heavy overcoats and purchase a pair of heavy wool mittens. So you can't blame him to be anxious to come back to Warren again.

Things happened rapidly at the student body meeting last Monday. A few waxed eloquent and used up their surplus energy by rhetorical and calisthenic exercises in the center of the aisles in the true Jeff Davis style. President Wellborn kept them safe within the zone of parliamentary order. That is, he almost kept them. The active members of the Warren School Student Body organization are both interesting and entertaining when stirred to action on matters of interest.

Warren grange has the booster spirit aroused, and many innovations will be made. The grange thinks it has some speakers in its membership, and to that end have issued a challenge to the Yankton grange to debate any subject that the latter may choose. The debate is to take place on February 23, at Warren. Warren grangers feel confident of having the scalps of their Yankton brothers to the ceiling of the hall, there to remain. Other grangers in the county may expect similar action by Warren after they have laid away Yankton.

BACHELOR FLAT

Miss Empo spent the week end with her parents at Blind Slough.

Mrs. Lillich and daughter, Minnie, spent Sunday with relatives in Deer Island.

Rev. J. W. Johnson, of this place, held meeting at Red Town, back of Goble, last Sunday.

Miss Helen Larsen is home from Portland on a short vacation but expects to return soon and resume her studies a shorthand.

Oscar Morton was among those who took the eighth grade examinations in St. Helens recently. Oscar passed with a very good grade and he expects to soon enter St. Helens high school.

Word has been received here that Walter Neigle, who enlisted in the spruce boys reserve and has been at Washington, D. C., is now on his way to France.

A Christian Endeavor party is to be given at the schoolhouse on Saturday night, February 2.

The pupils of the school are being informed this week as to what the United States government War Saving Stamps are and why they should buy them. Every effort is being made in school so as to awaken the children to the fact that this is not only helping win the war but also teaching the boys and girls to be saving and industrious.

Following is the roll of honor of Bachelor Flat school for January:

Lila White, James Pope, Agnes Engstrom, Oscar Madson, Harold Almroth, Crystal Burkhead, Helmer Lindberg, Eric Skarberg, Hubert Greenlund, Edward Madson, Edward Lindberg, Leslie Skuzie, Harold White, Forest White, Clifford Greenlund, Esther Sherwood, Ena Lindburg. VERNONIA

R. L. Spencer left Sunday morning for a few days visit in Portland and St. Helens. Mrs. Spencer accompanied him as far as Portland.

The eldest daughter of Mrs. Ed. Webster at Vernonia is seriously ill. Dr. Wooden was called from Clatskanie Saturday to render medical assistance.

The county court was here Saturday on an inspection trip of the valley and laying out the work for the year. They were in District No. 8 Friday. Road Supervisors Mills and Hill accompanied them on their trip.

The annual meeting of the Rock Creek Telephone Company was held at Purney's store Saturday afternoon and the following officers elected: President, Charles Bergeson; vice president, J. J. Purney; secretary-treasurer, E. A. Gessell. The company has 16 1/2 miles of line and serves 35 subscribers.

Though the big Red Cross drive is over in some parts of the state, the work in this district will be continued. Owing to the fact that necessary supplies were not received, the work has not been pushed. In School District No. 14, in the upper valley, Miss Rachel May, the school teacher, will have charge of the work and proposes to make the district 100 per cent Red Cross. Additional supplies have been asked for and when received the work will start in dead earnest.

Chas. Brown resumed his duties at the station Monday, after an absence of three months, caused by ill health. Mr. Brown's many friends will be glad he is at last able to take up his work for the company.

Ed Keelan, who has been working in a spruce camp near Seattle, is in a Seattle hospital, the injury he received in the Deer Island logging camp causing the trouble. The report is that his condition is quite serious.

The Deer Island Boy Scouts have been busy the past week distributing President Wilson's Flag day address. Uncle Sam is going into the propaganda business himself, and this is the first of much printed matter that will be placed in the homes by the Boy Scouts of America.

Walter B. Freeman made his regular trip to Portland Saturday, where he is studying advanced violin technique with Prof. H. L. Bettman, concert master of the Portland Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Freeman is an earnest student and is making splendid progress under the able instruction of Prof. Bettman.

YANKTON

The Yankton Grange will meet on Saturday.

Mrs. Hyde's mother is quite ill at their home in Yankton.

Mr. Cagle found a piece of gold quartz on his land in Yankton.

Sunday school every Sunday morning. Preaching every third and fourth Sunday of the month.

The Yankton school has employed another teacher. The school has now three teachers and three classes.
